

John Muir

John Muir (1838-1914) was a naturalist, ecologist, botanist, zoologist, and activist whose vision lives on in our national park system. Born in Scotland he emigrated to Wisconsin. He spent his adult life traveling the wilds of the USA, including the Sierra Nevadas, Yosemite, and Alaska. He co-founded The Sierra Club and helped establish Yosemite National Park.